In the first phase of the meeting (15.15 to 16.30 hours) teachers attended the presentation by prof. Giuseppe Italian who spoke on the origins and themes of the project.

Prof. Mauro di Grazia has then presented transnational report about early school leaving (see School Inclusion Portal).

This was followed by a presentation of the Home Stay @ School and the School of Inclusion by prof. Marco Manzuoli who also illustrated with slides contents of Module 1 "Identification of at-risk students."

Guidelines were supplied for online work (research, production of new experiences and case studies, ideas for the production of teaching materials).

The prof. Bertini then gave specific directions for interventions in the forum by teachers on module 1, actions to be taken before 30 October, the date of the virtual meeting.

At 16.30 has opened the debate on the form 'identification of children at risk' and have revealed the following information:

- develop the skills that students at risk have demonstrated to work on self-esteem and re-motivation.
- Create workshops starting from leisure activities in non-school hours to promote socialization
- Take training to staff dealing with orientation to prevent children less motivated studies are targeted towards vocational schools. On the other hand in vocational schools should be given a 'chance' to these students and focus on excellence, there are experiences of tough guys become great professionals.

18.15: conclusion of first workshop.
