The workshop was intended to present in detail the contents of Module 2 “Communication” as well as to discuss about the forum management.

The workshop took place on November, 5 at USR Veneto (Venice).

Camilla Tamiozzo, USRV representative, warmly welcomed the teachers and presented the workshop agenda.

After the introduction Camilla Tamiozzo made a presentation on Module 2. She described the structure of the module and its main sections in order to facilitate teachers’ work.

Project Number: 2011-1-IT1-LEO05-01961

CUP: G32F11000680006

The presentation was intended to begin a round table with teachers on Module 2. During the discussion teachers had the opportunity to provide their opinions and points of view by taking also into account the situation within their own schools. Teachers also agreed on the spokesperson's name for the virtual meeting. In order to facilitate his/her role, they will send a summary of their opinions in order to let the spokesperson to prepare a presentation for the virtual meeting.

In the last part of the introductory workshop, Camilla Tamiozzo invited teachers to discuss about the forum. In particular she encouraged them to post more comments and opinions by following the guidelines provided by the moderator.
