

Stay@School
Workshop on Module 3 “Teaching methods”
Iasi (Romania), 14 December 2012

Agenda

Timetable of the workshop: 13.00 – 17.30

- 13.00 – 13.30 Welcome cocktail & Self presentation of the participants & Short introduction of the workshop aims
- 13.30 – 14.00 Short presentation of the project and training package
- Introduction on the topic of the project and main objectives
 - Discussions about the early school leaving situation in Romania
 - Presentation of the project activities and results
 - Presentation of the training package (the 5 training modules, the forum, reports on the educational system in the involved countries, review of publication on school dropout, case studies, teachers experiences)
- 14.00 – 15.00 Feedback on the 1st 2 Modules
- Discussions on the main risk factors identified with references to real cases of students at risk of dropping out of education
 - Discussions on the role of the communication in conversation with difficult or truant pupils and on how to create the right school atmosphere
- 15.00 – 17.00 Introduction on the 3rd Training on Module 3 “Teaching methods”
- Presentation of the Module topics, objectives, competences
 - Discussions about the relationships between actions to recover students at risk and interactive teaching methods
 - Debates on the role of the collaborative teaching strategies: cooperative learning, peer education and the creative use of learning technologies
 - Group Activity – participants will be distributed in groups and each group will discuss and identify what types of methods they use at class to motivate students to learn
 - Discussions about the use of the educational technologies at class – their role, their availability, how prepared are the schools to offer the access to these technologies
 - Discussions about the importance of the continuous development of the teachers
- 17.00 – 17.30 Session for feedback and evaluation of the workshop.