At 10.15 Mrs Fiammelli presents Module 2 'Communication' and informs she has entered notes that collect attachments (documents, templates and worksheets) for an easy reading and understanding.

At 11 the debate on the module is opened and coordinated by Mrs Pastacaldi

The exchange of ideas and experiences leads to the following considerations:

In schools with a high risk of dropping out, often due to the degraded environment of students, it is likely that the parents (or whoever acts in their name) do not participate in the talks with the educational institution, therefore it is difficult to activate an ongoing dialogue with them.

The Module highlights a weak point in the school organization that sees all members of the school at work. Conflict management concerns teachers (between themselves and with the students) and students (between them and towards teachers).

We need to find teachers who are really interested in the dialogue with students and families in order to build a working group to face the issues outlined by the module.

The debate ends at 1 P.M.
