The workshop was intended to make a round table with teachers on the delivery of Module 2. The final workshop took place on November, 30 at USR Veneto (Venice).

The closing face-to-face workshop took place on the same day of the second virtual meeting. Teachers had the possibility to discuss about Module 2 and give their opinions and remarks with a view to the virtual meeting. In particular they had the opportunity to confirm or improve the information already given to the spokesperson.

Teachers wrote thus a report on Module 2 and during the workshop they presented the contents and shared experiences with the other colleagues.
